

Seasonal pricing 2010

Our pricing structure has been designed to give you great value, luxury summer holidays with much reduced rates at other times of the year so that we can introduce our products to you whilst enabling you to experience a short break or a week away in this very special part of the world.

However, we guarantee that no-one will offer you prices lower than we do for any of the products in our 2010 collection.

In the hope that you will visit us more than once a year, we now offer specially priced off peak seasons.

A calendar showing the dates for each season and prices for the properties featured in your Celtic Connections magazine is overleaf.

Discovery

Great offers in January, February and March for early year cosy cottage breaks – deserted beaches, crisp mornings, country markets and coastal walks.

In April and early May you can enjoy wonderful spring prices when the sea is warm enough to swim and surf.

During June and early July, this price band also allows you to enjoy some summer sun before the peak season.

In later weeks during September the offshore islands are stunning and the seal pups are frolicking in the incoming tides. During October, November and December you can enjoy the mild autumn and have Pembrokeshire to yourselves as you enjoy roaring fires with the locals in the pubs and restaurants!

Price example:

Cottage for 4

just £162.50 per person for a week

or £121.75 per person for a short break.

Memories

Half terms, a family get-together before and over Easter, a Whitsun break and late summer holidays are all times when you can enjoy the Celtic Connections resorts with up to 22% off our standard rates plus fantastic Christmas and New Year packages!

Or, in sunny September when business pressure prevents you spending as much time as you should with those you love – this is the time for you!

These unique breaks are called “Memories” because our postbag is full of letters from clients who tell us these were very special times for them at Celtic Haven or Admiral’s Mews.

Dozens of sporting and activity facilities are available at these times whilst missing the bustle of the high season.

Price example:

Cottage for 10

just £155.00 per person for a week

or £116.20 per person for a short break.

Sunshine

With one of the highest sunshine records in the UK, Pembrokeshire really is a holiday paradise. Sparkling blue waters wash a coast that is home to seals, dolphins, puffins and guillemots and is covered with an abundance of wild flowers.

Lively nightlife if you want it, dozens of secluded bays and National Park walks if you don’t!

World class golf and watersports – internationally acclaimed restaurants provide locally produced food.

Pembrokeshire comes alive.

Price example:

The Hunting Lodge, Waterwynch Estate from just £198.12 per person for a week (Short breaks are not available during “Sunshine” season.)

If you “recommend a friend” and they make a booking with us we will send you a £20.00 voucher with our compliments.
